COMMITTEES SELECTED

A. B. Seniors Will Be Guests at Dance for Which Steadman's Orchestra May Play

Commencement Day activities this year at Glenville State Teachers college will include the annual alumni reception and dance to be held from 8:30 to 1 o'clock in the college gymnasium, Monday, June 3, and a picnic lunch served on the campus for the alumni and their friends following the commencement address, Miss Alma Arbuclck, president, announces.

Miss Arbuclck says that A. B. seniors are invited as guests to a dance. Standard normal seniors may come to the dance and bring a guest but they must pay for themselves and their guests. Each A. B. senior may also bring a guest for whom he will have to pay. Tickets will be 75 cents a person.

Luncheon on Campus Planned The luncheon to be served by the Ladies' Aid Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church will be 35 cents a plate.

Immediately after luncheon there will be a business meeting of the alumni association for the purpose of electing officers for the coming year. The nominating committee is Miss Virginia Hall, Mrs. C. W. Post, and James Fordyce.

Committees Appointed

The committees to make preparation for the dance are:

Entertainment: Miss Goldie C.
James, chairman, and Everett Withers.

play for the dance, although it has not been definitely decided.

BEULAH ALLMAN SHOCK DIES

Husband, G. T. C. '34, and two-month-old Son Survive

Funeral services were held Thursday afternoon at the Broad Run Church, near Jane Lew, for Mrs.
John Shock, '31, the former Miss Beulah Allman, who died in a Weston hospital Tuesday following an operation for ulcers of the stomach.
Mrs. Shock was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Allman, of Jane Lew, and was graduated from the College in the standard normal class. For a time following graduation, she taught in the Lewis County schools.

Besides her parents and her husband, who was graduated in the standard normal class of the College in 1934 and is now a teacher in Webster Springs High School, a two-month-old son and a brother, Mark Allman, of Jane Lew, survive.

Seniors VOTE Kidd Lockard Most Scholarly, Crawford Favorite Teacher

Gabriel Chabut, of Mabie, and Samuel Stout, of Harrisville, presidents of the senior and freshman classes, respectively, tied for the honor of having done the most for their classes in the popularity poll conducted by the Mercury among the A. B. seniors last week. Out of twenty-four seniors who were eligible for the voting, fifteen voted.

Rarely was the voting decisive, this being especially true in the questions concerning literature, the drama, and the courses composing the school curriculum. In the listing of the favorite fiction writers, the choice included Zane Grey, Jean S.
Porter, Mark Twain, and Sinclair Lewis.

Among favorite poems were "Snowbound," "The Psalm of Life,"
"The Man With the Hoe," and Poas's verses about the cynic. None was named twice and several students gave no answer.

When the ballots were counted, selections nearly intended to be funny or ironical were considered invalid. Nor were they nearly so clever as the questions which were taken from a Princeton questionnaire of 1934. The Mercury makes no assertion of meaning, finality, or correctness in this contest. Votes are given in some cases to show the wide or narrow margin of the decisions.

LOYD METHENY ELECTED 1ST PRESIDENT OF STUDENT GOVERNMENT ASSOCIATION; CONSTITUTION READ, ADOPTED HASTILY

Council, Athletic Board, and Social Committee Are Created

PURPOSES ARE STATED

Class Heads to Be Members of Executive Group — Text of Articles Follows

The constitution of the Student Body Government Association, as accepted by the students of Glenville State Teachers College, Wednesday, proposes to "regulate all matters pertaining to the student life of its members which do not fall under the jurisdiction of the faculty." It is to be a medium for expressing the opinion of the students on matters of general interest, and to promote general student activities.

The constitution provides for Student Body Officers, a Student Council, a Committee on Social Af-airs, and an Athletic Board. The Student Body Officers were elected Friday and the president will preside over all meetings of the student body. The Student Council, probably the most influential body, will be composed of ten members. It will be the executive body and will supervise the activities of the different organizations within the college.

The Committee on Social Affairs will make a calendar of social dates and entertainments and arrange for the supervision of all social affairs.
The Athletic Board will determine the requirements necessary to earn a letter in sports and foster intramural sports.

The constitution is a condensation of the one now in effect at Fairmont Teachers College. The sections governing the regulation of fraternities and sororities were omitted.

Following is the constitution as it was read and accepted by the students:

CONSTITUTION

Preamble

We, the students of the Glenville State Teachers College, in order to secure a better school spirit, to insure closer cooperation between the students and the faculty, and to promote general student activities, establish this Constitution and By-Laws for the Glenville State Teachers College.

ARTICLE I.

Purpose

The purpose of this organization shall be to regulate all matters pertaining to the student life of its members which do not fall under the jurisdiction of the faculty; to promote general student activities and develop a true college spirit; to train its members in the principles and practices of democracy; to constitute a medium for expressing the opinion of the students on matters of general interest; and to strengthen the cordial relations existing between the faculty and students.

ARTICLE II.

College Colors

The official colors of this organization shall be Blue and White.

WHITE EXPLAINS SPEED

D'Orazio, Catharine Wilson, John Mowrey, and Chando O'Dell Other Officers

On September 16, Lloyd Metheny, of Terra Alta, will assume the duties of president of the Student Body Government Association of Glenville State Teachers College.
He will be the first president of the first student government body of the College.

Metheny defeated Thomas Pierce for the presidency in an election held Friday. Other officers of the association are: Vice-president, Stanley D'Orazio; secretary, Miss Catharine Wilson; treasurer, John Mowrey; sergeant-at-arms, Chando O'Dell. Only 230 of the 400 students enrolled voted in the election.

Constitution Adopted in Haste

Probably no other deliberative body has ever moved with such haste as did the students of the College. Within twenty-five minutes and without previous knowledge of it, the students in assembly Wednesday heard the constitution read, oftentimes inaudibly, and with parts omitted, accepted it without discussion, and nominated officers.

Aberration from the usual rules of order was noticed during the nomination of officers. At least one of the nominations accepted by the chairman had not been seconded. A motion for the closing of nominations was made, seconded, and accepted without vote.

When questioned after assembly several students said they did not know what they voted for. Some wanted student government because "other colleges have it," some "thought it would be a good idea," and two were opposed to student government.

Assembly was in charge of the four class presidents, Gabriel Cha-but of the seniors, Thomas Pierce of the juniors, Paul Fulk of the sophomores, and Samuel Stout of the freshmen. They, with H. L.
White of the faculty as adviser, prepared the constitution which was adopted.

Vote Announced

The hasty organization was explained by Mr. White who said that he wanted to see everything arranged this semester so that "work could be started next year in earnest. The constitution that has been adopted will have to be revised and added to by the students to fit the College." Largely a copy of the Fairmont Teachers College constitution, Glenville's has an important section omitted, as it was in Fairmont's through what seems to be a typographical error, and in one place a cheer leader is spoken of as a Student Body Officer but no provision is made elsewhere for his election or duties. The oath of allegiance in the copy of the constitution given to the Mercury was to Fairmont.

In the election held from 8 until 4 o'clock Friday by secret ballot and under the direction of the Senior Class the voting was thus:

For President: Lloyd Metheny,

ADOPTING A CONSTITUTION

They got what they wanted: Students have representative government. Or rather, we hope they got what they wanted.

The Mercury has been indifferent to student government, especially in small colleges, because we believe that any sufficiently interested group could heretofore have effected what student government will do, because we think it will breed professional politicians, because it will promote juvenile rivalry among campus organizations, and because we are not convinced that such training in government is as valuable to good government as is thorough knowledge of almost any part of the curriculum. We name our objections not because they are worth anything as such, but because they represent dangers which the students of the College should try to avert. The haste and lack of understanding with which the constitution was adopted make such a warning seem proper.

Whether the constitution is the best that could be devised or even a good one, we do not know, but that almost all or all students in assembly should vote to adopt it immediately after they heard just parts of it read only once is not flattering to American education. The talk about education training one to respond intelligently to whatever situations may confront him seems in this instance nothing but window dressing. A critical attitude was lacking. Only an expert could understand a constitution at one reading of it; yet Glenville's was adopted without so much as one word of discussion, without one question being asked. Of any number of morais that could be pointed out, one is that a shell game operated in Administration Hall would be lucrative.

We hope that it will not be necessary to revise the constitution and change it to fit the needs of this college. (How does one change a constitution anyhow? and how does a body free itself of a constitution it does not like?) If student government is to be anything more than an amusement, its constitution should have been as nearly perfected as possible before it was adopted. We hope the students got what they want, but if they did not, we can only say none too comfortably or originally that they have no one to blame but themselves.

HAROLD ("DUTCH") SMITH, Olympic Fancy High-Diving Champion, enjoying a Camel. He has smoked Camels for nine years—smoked Camels even before he took up diving. He says, "I'd walk a mile for a Camel."

Read below what leading sports champions say about Camels

With the preference of star athletes overwhelmingly for one cigarette, that cigarette has to be exceptionally mild! Its name is well known to you—Camel. Here's what an Olympic champion diver, Harold ("Dutch") Smith, says about Camels: "I've found a great deal of pleasure in Camels. They never interfere with my wind." Rip Collins, of the St. Louis Cardinals, says: "Here's the best proof I know that Camels are mild: I can smoke them steadily, and they never get my wind."

Rowland Dufion, of the New York A. C., says: "Squash is a game that requires A1 condition for tournament play. I've found that Camels are so mild I can smoke all I want, and they never upset my nerves or get my wind. That's what I call real mildness!"

Dick Shelton, world-champion steer dodger, says: "I must be sure the cigarettes I smoke are mild. Camels are very mild—don't get my wind." And those two brilliant golfers, Denny Shute and Helen Hicks, have come to the same conclusion—"Camels do not get my wind."

How this mildness is important to you too!

Camel smokers can smoke more—and enjoy smoking more, knowing that sports champions have found Camels so mild that they never jangle their nerves or get their wind.

YOU'LL LIKE THEIR MILDNESS TOO!

YOUR OWN PHYSICAL CONDITION is important to you too. So remember this: Camels are so mild you can smoke all you want. Athletes say Camels never get their wind or nerves.

SO MILD! YOU CAN SMOKE ALL YOU WANT!

COSTLIER TOBACCOS!

• Camels are made from finer, MORE EXPENSIVE TOBACCOS—Turkish and Domestic—than any other popular brand.
