

The Glenville State University Natural Resource Management Pathway is designed for high school students across the state of West Virginia who are eager to get a jump start on a college degree within the Natural Resource Management field at Glenville State University.

- Forestry
- Environmental Science
- Wildlife Management
- Criminal Justice (DNR)

Students who choose to participate in the GSU Natural Resource Management Pathway will earn a total of 24 college credits during the duration of their enrollment, helping them become better prepared for a successful transition into their chosen degree path and future career.

GLENVILLE STATE UNIVERSITY

Natural Resource Management

High School Pathway

CONTACT US

Rachel Clutter

GSU Director of Dual Enrollment/Dual
Credit Rachel.Clutter@glenville.edu
(304) 462-6129

GLENVILLE STATE UNIVERSITY

Proudly sponsored by Level Up
WV and EQT

www.glenville.edu

NATURAL RESOURCE MANAGEMENT PATHWAY HIGH SCHOOL PATHWAY

A minimum of 24 credit hours, to be comprised of that following NRMT and general studies credits.

Required course:

- ENVR 101 – Environmental Science (4 Credits)

At least one of the following courses:

- NRMT 125 – Computer Assisted Mapping (3 Credits)
- NRMT 234 – GIS Application I (3 Credits)
- LAND 121 - Intro to Land Surveying (3 Credits)
- LAND 234 - Intro to Drone Technology (2 Credits)

At least one of the following courses:

- MATH 108 – Intro to College Math (3 Credits; prerequisite for MATH 115 for students who do not have math scores at or above 21 [ACT] or 530 [SAT])
- MATH 115 – College Algebra (3 Credits)

The remaining credits should be selected from the following courses:

- ENGL 203 – Survey of English Lit I (3 Credits)
- ENGL 204 – Survey of English Lit II (3 Credits)
- ENGL 205 – Survey of American Lit I (3 Credits)
- ENGL 206 – Survey of American Lit II (3 Credits)
- CART 101 – Intro to Public Speaking (3 Credits)
- HIST 207 – United States History to 1877 (3 Credits)
- HIST 208 – United States History since 1877 (3 Credits)
- POSC 203 – American National Government (3 Credits)

PATHWAY ENROLLMENT

Requirements

- High School junior or senior
- Approved by high school counselor or principal
- Mark YES beside questions "I wish to participate in the GSU Natural Resource Management Pathway" on Dual Credit Enrollment Registration Card

Cost

Students enrolled in the Natural Resource Management Pathway who attend the following schools will receive all dual credit tuition and required textbooks within the Natural Resource Management Pathway at no cost to them.

- Midland Trail High School
- Oak Hill High School
- Meadow Bridge High School
- Calhoun County High School
- Gilmer County High School
- Pocahontas County High School
- Lewis County High School
- Point Pleasant High School
- Wahama High School

Students attending a school not listed above can participate in the Natural Resource Management Pathway, with cost of tuition and textbooks fully covered by EQT.

Getting Started

To participate in the Glenville State University Natural Resource Management High School Pathway, please scan the QR code below. Select your high school, courses you desire to enroll in for the upcoming semester, and mark YES beside "I wish to participate in the GSU Natural Resource Management Pathway"

